Announcement

This sale marks the passing of a good herd of Scotch Polled Shorthorn cattle that was started over thirty years ago by a firm that has bred good cattle continuously since then. Mr. Jas. Burns, the surviving member of the partnership, made the decision to close out reluctantly and only because of his physical inability to carry on with it.

From the foundation of the herd down to date Burns Bros. sought to build around good Scotch tribes and by the use of good herd bulls. The principal tribes are Mayflowers, Mauds, Clippers, Augustas, Nonpareil, Orange Blossom and Victoria. The present herd bull, Collynie Stardale, a four-year-old in his prime, is without doubt one of the best tried Polled Shorthorn bulls available today. He cost $500.00 as a calf. The bull preceding him, Cardigan Chancellor, cost $550.00. Both bulls are deep in good blood.

Burns Bros. have bred and sold Polled Shorthorn cattle for profit as an adjunct to a program of balanced farming and live stock. Without fan fare or outside effort except conservative advertising they have disposed of the surplus every year at profitable prices to breeders and farmers. Burns cattle have been good winners for others and this offering contains some young stock that are good show prospects. It is only in a complete closing out sale that buyers have the chance to buy all of the tops.

You are cordially invited to attend this sale.

H. C. McKELVIE, Sale Manager.
